[5] Exactly what it says on the tin. Geek stand-up, with a Q&A afterwards to answer your most burning questions and settle your least amicable debates. Would Samus beat Lara Croft in a fight? Goku or Superman? Green Lanterns: Who Wore it Best? The sky's the limit- the Cobra Kai of geek comedy will tackle any query your heart desires.

[6] The sunsets shortly after 8pm this evening.

[7] Miguel Lugo hosts another fun and entertaining episode of this Nauticon favorite. NO LABELED BOTTLES at this EVENT.

[8] This parody is not going to win any awards, with its less than stellar animation and voice dubbing, but it's fair game for redubbing by our audience. Come and share your adlibs with your fellow viewers. Remember what has been seen, cannot be unseen. You have been warned...

[9] $35 ADD-ON: Imagine a world full of mobsters and espionage. Living in the dark yet glamorous world of Al Capone and Bugsy Siegel surely warrants a drink or ten.

Come indulge in the classics, the forgotten, and the delicious. Learn just what makes a Tom Collins tick, a Side Car drive, or what all the hubbub of a Casablanca is about. These aren't just your grandpa's drinks, these are drinks from the old days made right.
